European Studies Graduate Workshop

Researching the EU. Critical Perspectives for Critical Times.

Thursday 28 and Friday 29 May 2015

ANU Centre for European Studies, 1 Liversidge St Canberra

Graduate Students are warmly invited to participate in a workshop on all aspects of European studies. It will be convened at Australian National University on behalf of Australia and New Zealand EU Centres including RMIT University, the New Zealand Centres Network, the University of Melbourne, the University of Adelaide and the University of South Australia. The workshop will be held over two days on 28 and 29 May 2015 in Canberra.

This is an opportunity for graduate students working in European Studies in this region to come together in an informal, supportive environment. Participants will present their work in progress and discuss key issues in the field; receive constructive feedback and professional training from senior scholars; and have an opportunity to meet other graduate students in European studies from across Australia and New Zealand.

Limited travel funds are available on application for students from RMIT University, the New Zealand EU Centres Network the University of Melbourne, the University of Adelaide and the University of South Australia. Please contact your relevant EU Centre for further details.

Graduate students wishing to participate should submit a title and abstract for a short presentation related to their current work to europe@anu.edu.au to be included in the programme. The deadline for abstracts is 23 April 2015.

The workshop is a free event.
