HARM MINIMISATION CONDITIONS IMPOSED ON 27 APR 1998:

The secretary shall take all reasonable steps to prohibit or restrict activities (such as promotions or discounting) that could encourage misuse or abuse of liquor (such as binge drinking or excessive consumption).

The secretary is to maintain a register which is to contain a copy of the certificate of the satisfactory completion of the Responsible Service of Alcohol course by the secretary and for employees who have completed the course. The register is to be made available for inspection on request by a police officer or special inspector.

The secretary must as a minimum continually apply the house policies and practices on harm minimisation and responsible service of alcohol tendered to the Court at the time the application was granted. A copy of the house policy is to be maintained in the register in which the certificates of completion of the responsible service of alcohol course are filed. The house policy must be continually updated by additions that do not diminish from the issues approved by the Court and reflect legislative requirements, court, industry and Department of Gaming and Racing recommendations.

The "No More Its The Law" and four (4) house policy posters developed by the Liquor Industry Consultative Council (available from the Department of Gaming and Racing) must be prominently displayed throughout the premises.

In addition to any other notice required to be displayed there is to be prominently displayed in the premises, the "Intoxication" sign and at each public entrance way to the premises the "Proof of Age" poster (available from the Department of Gaming and Racing).

The Liquor Industry Code of Practice for the Responsible Promotion of Alcohol Products (available from the Department of Gaming and Racing) must be adopted in respect of the premises. A copy of the code must be displayed in a position in the premises where it will be readily available to and noticed by all staff involved in the sale and supply of liquor.

Low alcohol beer and non-alcoholic beverages must be available at all times when full strength liquor is available. The pricing structure of low alcohol beverages is to reflect the lower wholesale cost of those beverages.

Food must be available whenever liquor is consumed on the licensed premises.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

PROPRIETARY RIGHTS AND PASSING-OFF

Registration of a business name does not confer any ownership interest in that name. Registration of a business name under the Business Names Act 2002 neither protects a person's use of a business name nor grants immunity from legal action where a person is passing-off the business name as that of another business.

DISPLAYING THE BUSINESS NAME

The Business Name is to be conspicuously displayed at every place of business. The Business Name must be printed or written on every business letter, invoice, receipt or other document used by the business.

RENEWING THE REGISTRATION

The registration of a Business Name lasts for three (3) years unless cancelled earlier. Fair Trading will issue a renewal notice prior to the expiry date. To retain the registration of the Business Name the renewal should be lodged before the expiry date.

NOTIFYING CHANGES

You must notify Fair Trading within one (1) month of changes occurring to the particulars of the business name. A new Certificate of Registration will be issued. Penalties may apply for failing to notify of changes.

TRADING STATUS

The Business Names Act 2002 provides for a business name to be Trading or Not Trading. If the trading status of your business name has changed you need to advise Fair Trading. If the change in status is from Not Trading to Trading you will need to provide an address for the principal place of business and any other places of business.

CEASING BUSINESS

If you cease business, you must lodge an Application to Cancel Registration of a Business Name (Form 5) with Fair Trading within one (1) month of ceasing business.

FEES

Fees will not be refunded once a business name has been registered, renewed or restored.

FORMS AND ENQUIRIES

Forms may be obtained or lodged at any Fair Trading Centre. Forms may also be lodged by mail to: NSW Fair Trading, PO Box 972, Parramatta NSW 2124.

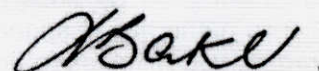

Enquiries relating to the registration of a business name and requests for forms can be made by telephone on 13 32 20 Monday to Friday 8.30am to 5.00pm.

PROPRIETARY RIGHTS AND PASSING-OFF

Registration of a business name does not confer any ownership interest in that name. Registration of a business name under the Business Names Act 2002 neither protects a person's use of a business name nor grants immunity from legal action where a person is passing-off the business name as that of another business.

DISPLAYING THE BUSINESS NAME

The Business Name is to be conspicuously displayed at every place of business. The Business Name must be printed or written on every business letter, invoice, receipt or other document used by the business.

RENEWING THE REGISTRATION

You must renew the registration of the business name every three (3) years. The Business Name MUST be renewed prior to the expiry date or it will be removed from the Register and may become available for registration by other persons.

NOTIFYING CHANGES

You must notify Fair Trading within one (1) month of changes occurring to the particulars of the business name. A new Certificate of Registration will be issued. Penalties may apply for failing to notify of changes.

TRADING STATUS

The Business Names Act 2002 provides for a business name to be Trading or Not Trading. If the trading status of your business name has changed you need to advise Fair Trading.
